

K-LOVE radio station 88.3 in my area is the only station I listen to. The music and DJ's promote respect for God & civil authority, and encourage responsible citizenship. It is vital for young people to have this alternative; much contemporary music promotes drug use, disrespect for the law, and immoral behavior.